

【Type F: Fellowships for Young Researchers】

*Please note that the Young Fellowship System has changed.

1. Purpose: From the May 2024 call, the Young Fellowship Program will change to a program that supports stays of 2-3 months in combination with GIMRT Single Visit. If your intended stay exceeds one month, the first month is supported by GIMRT Single Visit and additional months by the Young Fellowship Program.

2. The applicant should submit both GIMRT Single Visit and Young Fellowship. The Application for Young Fellowship only is not accepted.

3. Eligibility: Post-Doctoral Researchers and PhD. Students from Abroad. For PhD student, the application must be submitted by a supervisor.

4. How to apply:

1) Apply GIMRT single visit

Please indicate the following in the GIMRT Single Visit application form.

a) The name of the student/young person coming to the IMR, the period of stay, and confirmation of applying for Young Fellowship.

2) Submit Young Fellowship application with a copy of GIMRT single visit proposal and C.V.

5. The entire stay should be in a minimum of two months.

Under special circumstances, applications for 1.5 months (GIMRT 1 month and +Young Fellowship 0.5) may be considered. For any stay is shorter than this, the young fellowship program is not applicable. In addition, short-term stays for participation in conferences are not eligible.

6. In the case of students, the representative of the application should be the student's supervisor and the student should be a collaborator in the GIMRT single visit program. The host faculty must confirm that the dispatch side takes care of health insurance and other necessary coverage such as liability insurance during the stay.

*For information on applying for a Single Visit, please refer to the GIMRT user system below. <https://gimrt.appli.imr.tohoku.ac.jp/login>